- Construct and administer periodic tutorial assessments designed to determine student mastery of tutorial subject matter.
- Maintain familiarity with designated course objectives and faculty member expectations of courses being tutored.
- Develop a tutoring plan for each scheduled tutoring session; submit tutoring documents to the Academic Success Center with timesheets.
- Research and identify specific supplementary learning materials related to subject matter being tutored and provide student being tutored with copies.
- Provide a flexible, open, and safe environment for the student for peer-to-peer learning.
- Empower all parties to engage in and with the learning process.
- Set the structure and terms of the tutoring relationship within prescribed guidelines established by the Assistant Director for Academic Success.

Duties:

- Participate in training program.
- Reply to documented tutoring requests received through the Assistant Director for Academic Success.
- Define through discussion with student(s) the specific nature of learning assistance required.
- Establish mutually agreed upon learning goals to be achieved and construct a written statement based upon these goals.
- File copy of the learning agreement with the Assistant Director for Academic Success acknowledging the acceptance of the tutoring referral.
- Reserve any physical facilities necessary for conducting scheduled tutoring sessions.

- Evaluate student progress in tutorial relationship and provide students with assessment of progress.
- Attend scheduled training sessions designed to promote tutoring effectiveness and understanding.
- Meet with the Assistant Director for Academic Success to discuss each student's progress once per month during term time.
- Record appropriate documentation of tutoring services provided and submit such records to the Assistant Director for Academic Success.
- Meet as necessary with the Assistant Director for Academic Success to discuss personal issues arising from tutorial relationships.
- Initiate contact with student(s) referred through the Assistant Director for Academic Success.
- Contact the designated faculty instructor of the course being tutored and advise of tutoring assignment, as appropriate.
